[REDACTED] A representative of the Security Analysis Group attended the funeral on 28 October. Three individuals were observed at the site of the services; one took pictures of those in attendance. (C)

d. On 27 October, members of the Information Systems Security Group met with a representative of ORD for an initial discussion regarding the feasibility of utilizing "FASTSCAN" technology to audit Agency ADP systems. The meeting was informative and it was agreed that this technology could be adopted as a future method of auditing the Agency's ADP environment. A joint OS/ORD effort in this area is being considered. (U)

e. A member of the Domestic Security Branch provided assistance to staff members of the House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence in regard to destroying committee classified trash at the Headquarters Building. Assistance was also rendered to the committee in the turnover of records from the former Pike Committee to the Office of Legislative Counsel for permanent retention. (U)

f. The pace of construction of the [REDACTED] buildings continues at an accelerated rate. From the security standpoint, operations have been smooth except for two instances of vandalism. During the hours of darkness, unknown individuals are using what appears to be an airgun to shoot out windows in the construction equipment on the site. The incidents have been reported to the [REDACTED] Police Department for appropriate action. (U)
